

Computed capture of streamflow, riparian evapotranspiration, and springflow that would result for withdrawal of water from model layer 4 at a constant rate for 100 years. The color at any location represents the fraction of the withdrawal rate by a well at that location that can be accounted for as changes in outflow from and or inflow to the aquifer for model boundaries representing streams, riparian vegetation, and springs.